With Aetna Rx Home Delivery, your employees have a convenient, cost-effective way to get many types of prescription medications ... through the mail, without leaving home!

Rx cost solutions.

- Aetna Rx Home Delivery is the primary source for mail-order prescriptions for Aetna members. And because we fill prescriptions for millions of members, we're able to more effectively manage drug costs by offering competitive discounts on generic and brand-name drugs — which could result in plan savings for you.*
- Additional savings may be possible when generic or preferred brand-name drugs are dispensed to members.
- As with claims made to Aetna participating retail pharmacies, Aetna Rx Home Delivery claims can be automatically applied to an employee's flexible spending account ... simplifying plan administration.
- Ordering medications through Aetna Rx Home Delivery may save your employees money. Receiving more medication initially could require fewer refills, which could save time and reduce out-of-pocket costs!

Safety first.

- Aetna Rx Home Delivery and participating retail pharmacies are electronically linked to Aetna's claim-processing system, so new prescriptions obtained from participating pharmacies under the plan are automatically screened against the member's available drug and medical histories.

- Advanced automation and quality control systems promote dispensing accuracy and efficient order processing.
- Pharmacists are available 24 hours a day to answer member questions about medications.

Using mail-order is easy!

- There are no forms to complete for refills.
- Members can order refills by phone, by mail, or on the Web. Online refills can be requested from Aetna Rx Home Delivery through our website at www.aetnarxhomedelivery.com. Members can also check the status of their orders online.
